TRUDY – TruDiva – Biography

Born and raised in Jamaica, Trudy (TruDiva) began her journey and dream of becoming a singer at the early age of 4. Now, this Clarendon beauty is gearing up to share her incredible gift with the rest of the world.

Described as a cross between Rihanna, Ke$ha, Keri Hilson, and Beyoncé, but with a style all her own, Trudy is passionate about her God-given talents. Growing up in the church, and watching her mother direct the local choir, gave her a preparation and training ground that developed her natural singing ability. "I would watch, listen and learn from being at all of the choir rehearsals for church" she says, and adds, "Watching my mother direct the choir taught me a lot about singing."

Trudy has almost overnight caught the eye of leading industry tastemakers both inside Jamaica and abroad. Christopher Birch, known for his groundbreaking records with Shaggy, Sean Paul, Beenie Man, and Bounty Killer says, "Trudy is the real deal. She is a Superstar on the rise!" One of her first singles that will be hitting the clubs and radio in Jamaica and the USA is called "Booty", produced by Birch. "The song sounds like it could be one of those Summer smashes!" says DJ Skee, host of the new music show on KIIS in Los Angeles. Nick Vidal, one-half of the world-famous, nationally syndicated radio show "The Baka Boyz" says, "BOOTY is a hot record! I like the track because it sounds like nothing else out there!"

Trudy is an exceptional live entertainer with attention-grabbing vocals, and has performed at Concerts in both Saint Elizabeth and Rocky Point, Jamaica. Trudy is also a songwriter, with the ability to pen songs almost instantaneously. In fact, veteran industry producers have watched in almost disbelief when she writes hit melodies and lyrics on the fly. Currently she is busy writing songs and working in the recording studio with tracks from a "who's-who" of Award-winning, Multi-Platinum Music Producers, including producers Chuckey Charles, Jerry Flowers, Cirocco, Alvin Speights, Chris Bell, VIP (The Reeves Bros.), Jamaican hit-makers Birch, Demarco, and Conroy Forte (Washroom Entertainment).

Always looking to stretch herself musically, Trudy has continued to develop her talents and gifts as a singer and songwriter. Recently, she was chosen by The Issa Trust Foundation to write and produce a new song to help raise money for Jamaica's Youth, and she was also recently voted RMP Magazine's Best New Talent for a song that she performed and co-wrote with producer Reezington. Be on the watch for this up-and-coming star – as she will soon be making her debut music release to the world through Oceanic Tradewinds Music.
